

Rio Bank Expands Footprint with New Banking Center in Alamo Heights

December 4, 2023

San Antonio, TX - Rio Bank, a community bank headquartered in McAllen, Texas, is proud to announce the opening of its first full-service banking center outside of the Rio Grande Valley. The new banking center, located in Alamo Heights, Texas, marks a significant milestone for the bank as it establishes a presence in one of San Antonio's most vibrant and growing neighborhoods.

"The opening of our Alamo Heights banking center is a testament to our commitment to expanding our reach and serving the communities that matter most to us," said Brian Humphreys, President of Rio Bank. "Alamo Heights is a thriving community with a strong sense of identity, and we are excited to become a part of its fabric."

The expansion marks Rio Bank's 16th banking center with plans for future growth in Central Texas.

The Alamo Heights banking center will offer a full range of personal and business banking services, including checking and savings accounts, loans, Wealth Management and Private Banking.

The Central Texas team, led by Josh Collins, Executive Vice President and Director of Market Development, consists of talented and experienced bankers ready to provide personalized service to our customers. Collins adds, "Rio Bank has a rich heritage of community, commitment and relationship banking. I am excited to introduce San Antonio and our surrounding communities to Rio Bank, our kind of bank."

Samantha McKee, Private Banker, and Greg Stouffer, Business Development, are long time San Antonio bankers that understand the needs of community. Antonio Moreno, Commercial Loan Officer, is available to discuss loan requests for the growing community.

Pricilla Tovar-Solis, Banking Center Manager and a Rio Bank employee of 12 years, will manage the day to day needs of our clients that visit our new location. Across Texas they remain committed to being "Your Kind of Bank, Your Kind of Banker!"

The new banking center is located at 5700 Broadway, San Antonio, TX and will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. - Monday through Friday.
